From the Organsiers

Congratulations to the award winners and better luck to everyone else next time. The real winner was the weather, hopefully it did not dampen your spirits too much.

We would like to thank our Sponsor, Ian Barnard; all the Competitors for turning out, all marshals for standing out all day; the officials for helping to run the event and to Anthony Ashwell for the use of the venue.

We look forward to seeing you all again in 2007.
