Dear Competitor

Thank you for your entry. Would you please note the following:-

1. Please find your start number on the enclosed entry list, an updated version will be available on the GBMC and WAC web site later in the week and at the event.
2. The MSA Steward is Mr Alan Barnard, the Club Stewards are Mr Chris Hunt and Mr Paul Watkins (Sat)/ Mr Gerry Thurlow (Sun), The event is also a round of the ASWMC championship and contenders are duly eligible to enter the event.
3. The timetable for the event remains as per the SRs with signing on commencing at 09.00 on Saturday and 08.30 on Sunday. Competition numbers will also be available at signing on. Staying overnight at the venue on Friday night is now confirmed provided that you arrive on site between 15.30 and 18.30.
4. A reminder from the Scrutineer – Junior Autocross competitors to ensure their cars are fitted with FIA seat belts to Blue Book, page 230, E109, that is 4 point FIA seat belts must be fitted as C(c)45.4. Any car not complying will not be allowed to start.
5. Refreshments will be available at the site. Please either use the litter bins provided or take your rubbish home. Toilets are available at the site. You should note that there are no water supplies on site so please ensure you have enough with you.
6. Please drive carefully and considerately both to and from the venue, as we do not want to give others a bad image of motorsport. A map of the approaches to the venue enclosed. For those using sat navs the postcode that get you to the approach road is CM7 9RN, however please use the maps on the next page to avoid going through the centre of Braintree.
7. Please ensure that all young persons are kept under close watch at all times, as the organisers will not be liable for any injury howsoever caused.
8. Finally we wish you an enjoyable weekend's motorsport.
